DEDICATION

You are many things, South High . . .

You are cold, empty structures of timber and stone, glass and steel.

You are warm, friendly people, encouraging, willing to teach,
eager to learn.

You are an experience, a symbol,
a mainstay, an ideal;

You are a way of life; you are a memory . . .

To you, South High, and to the throng of carefree students who have surged through your doors these past three decades, to emerge as young adults, better equipped to meet the challenges of citizenship in a democracy, to you we dedicate this thirtieth edition of the Souther- ner, 1961.

Dear Marty,
It's really been great knowing you this year. I'm really going to miss you during the summer. You are so cute & have such a unique personality. Just always be good and obedient.
Take it easy on the girls & don't believe them about Johnning.

Audrey

AND SIXTY-ONE SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SIXTY-ONE SOUTH HIGH

You, the understanding and just administrators of our school . . .

You have given much to South High;

You have devoted your talents and your lives to our welfare.

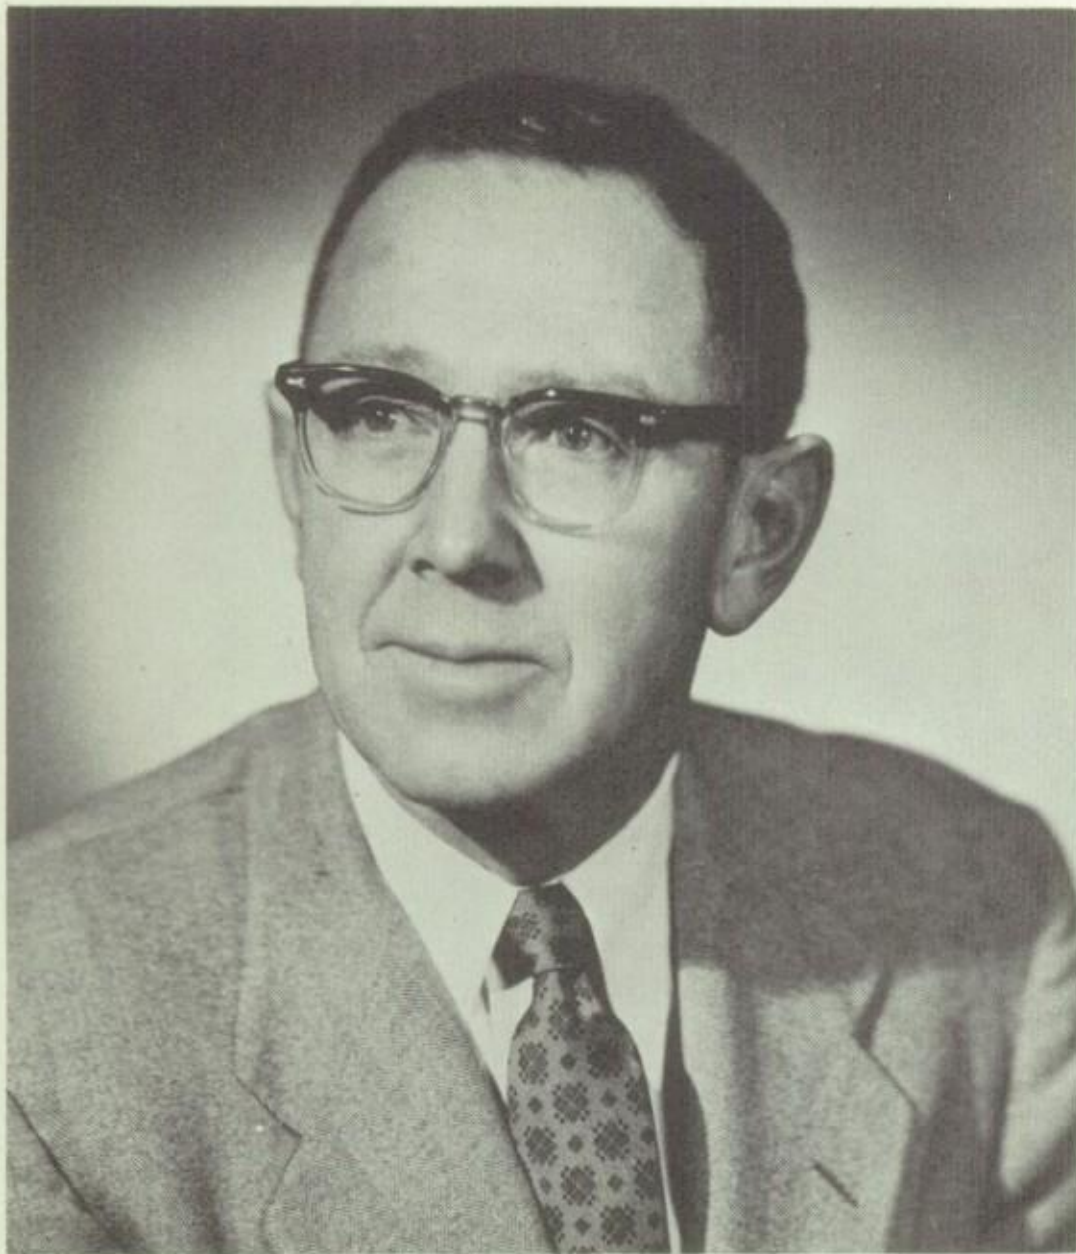

You have given us that extra encouragement we needed, have shown us greater purpose in life.

You are the leaders of youth . . .

We have looked to you for guidance and you have shown us the way, by charging us with responsibility, by allowing us to set our own course. For your faith and trust, your counsel and advice, your discipline, we are grateful.

SCHOOL NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SIXTY-ONE SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL NINETEEN HUNDRED A

You, the doers . . .
You who execute the plans and the projects,
You who build and better the symbols of South High, performing in her service, establishing and perpetuating her reputation;
You who benefit and are benefited by the organized activities of our school;
You are strength in unity . . .

You have learned a valuable lesson in democratic citizenship, working together, achieving through co-operation. You have raised your voices in unity, have culminated the efforts of many in objects of pride and satisfaction.
Your works have profited your school and your world, but more important, you yourself have been added upon.

SCHOOL NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SIXTY-ONE SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL NINETEEN HUNDRED A

You, the Cubs . . .
You who represented South High on gridiron,
diamond, track, and court,
You who forcibly asserted a reputation of Southern might, who had the competitive spirit, and who fought for your feelings;
You the athletes . . .
And you who cheered the teams on from the stands, who stood behind them all the way,
You who put your lungs behind your hearts,
whose spirit was often the deciding factor;
You the fans . . .
You are Southerners all.

You met both victory and defeat for and with our South High, but with heart and mind you learned that both were forms of triumph for they brought to us unity.

Full of pep and energy . . . uniting our student body . . . the core of our school spirit . . . cheering . . . leading South High on to victory.

On South High! We stand behind you forever!
On South High! To greater heights and fame.
Oh the Blue and White will ever wave on before us,
While we proclaim your praises to all
Rah, Rah, Rah
Hail, South High! We stand behind you forever
Hail, South High! The school that we love best To your colors we're true, while all our voices ring out,
Rising to the sky for our South High.

South High's Sons and Daughters, like the mighty waters, roll along to victory!
Rides of Warriors meet us, with their teams to beat us,
but we'll fight for victory.
Onward! Onward! Team's against the foe, Forward! Forward! The South High Cubs will go.
South High, we are with you, and we're here to cheer you,
On, on, on to victory.

SCHOOL NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SIXTY-ONE SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL NINETEEN HUNDRED A

You the creators of pleasure . . .

You have taken the responsibility, have devoted your ideas and your efforts to the enjoyment of many others.

You have lent an air of excitement and entertainment to school life, plunging in, with an eagerness for fun.

You who planned and organized . . .

You who participated . . .

You are better prepared to meet the world.

You began the year with the gaiety and enthusiasm of youthful adventure; it was ended in a breathless whirlwind of finality. The social life of our school gave you that extra feeling of warm friendliness and pleasure, and it was, as well, a learning experience of great value to you. But a touch of nostalgia will always remain in your memory at the organized activities at South High.

Y-ONE SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SIXTY-ONE SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL

ACTIVITIES

Welcome Cubs! . . . Hello Day swing in another year . . . new friends . .
new faces . . . new experiences . .
renewing the well-known tradition o
Southern friendliness.

Long-time, no-see, pal!

Welcome Back, Southerners!

"Students, there will be no school this year."

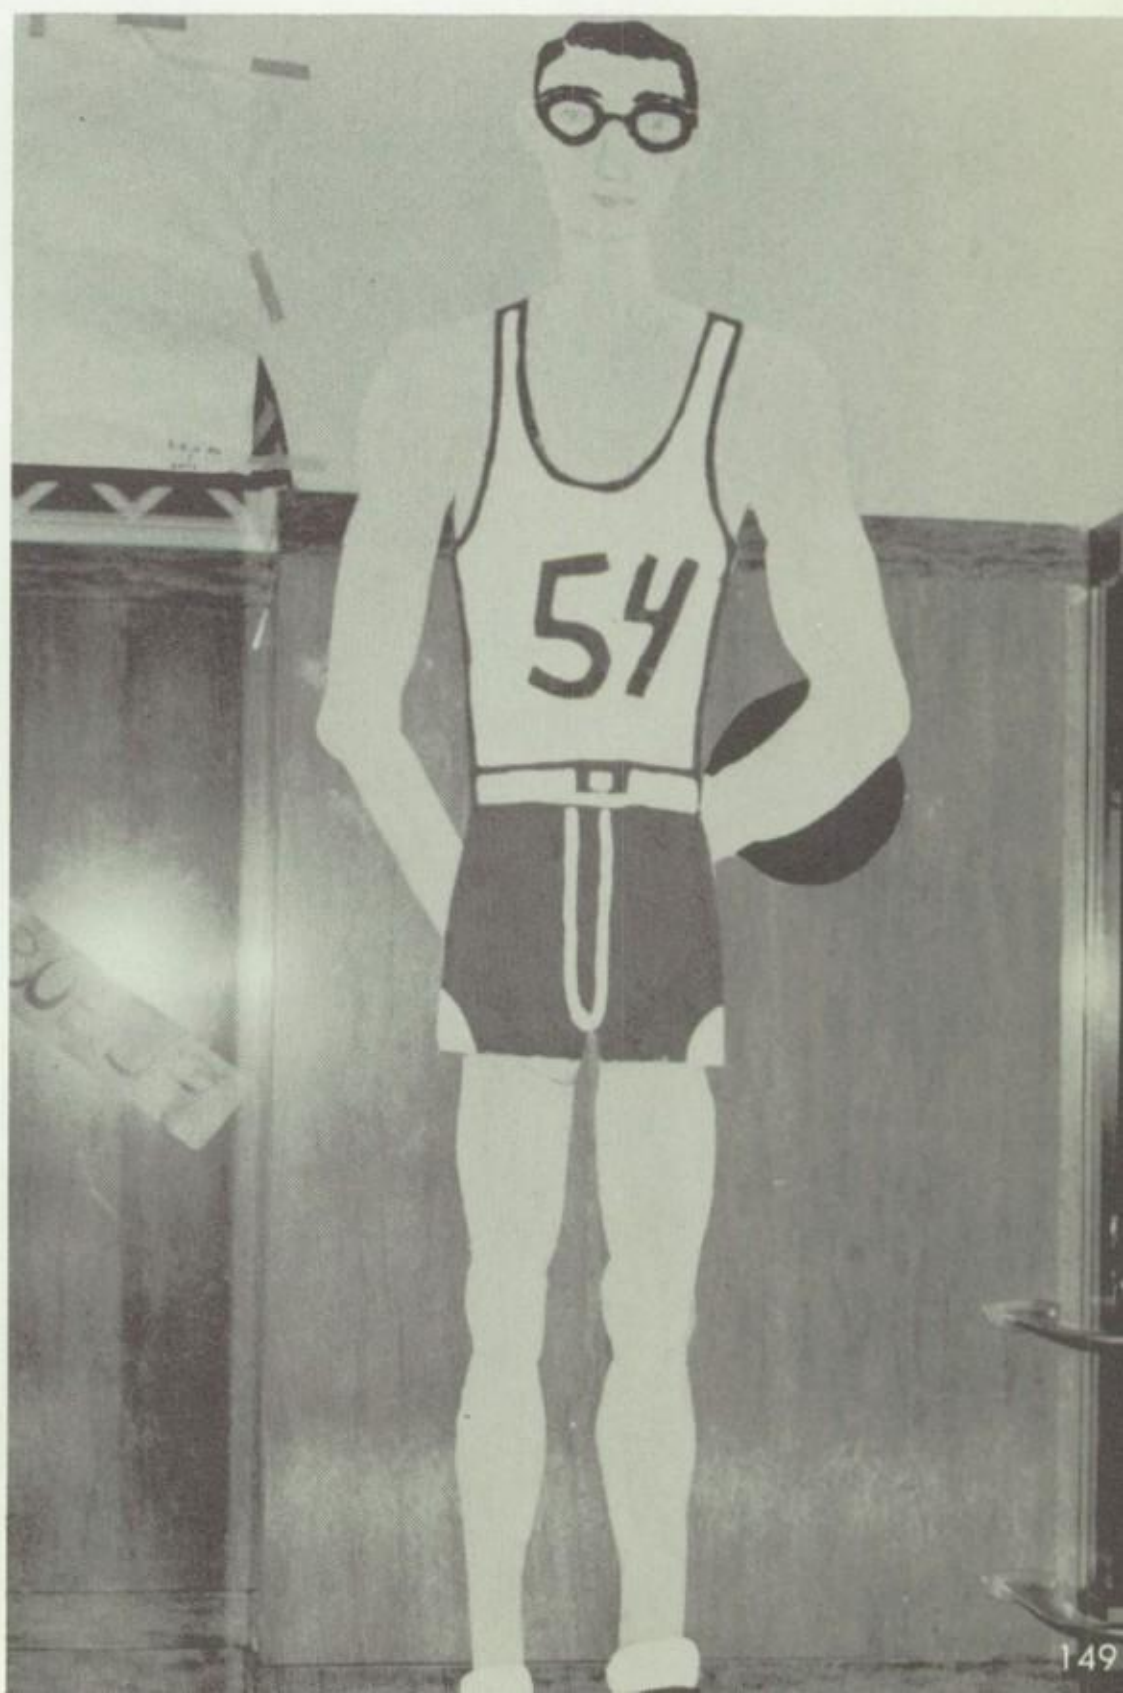

Which one was washed in new Blue Cheer?

Elections

Rousing campaign parties . . . posters . . . well-qualified candidates . . . decisions to be made . . . our elections . . . developing our democracy to its highest degree.

I'm bigger than you!

Three-time winners.

Gold Rush

Snow cones . . . pizza . . . candy . . . Gold Rush! . . . bedlam in the halls at lunches and before school . . . "Everything must go, and then some!" was the motto . . . wild schemes carried through to uproarious ends, all for charity . . . stiff competition between the classes . . . seniors won again for the third consecutive year.

"Barker Bill" and his Moll.

Alumni Day

Do sophomores always suck their thumbs?

Old memories . . . familiar faces . . . visiting and laughing . . . re-acquaintance with teachers and old friends . . . a big assembly and dance to the theme of "Casper's Capers" welcomed back the alums.

One, two, cha-cha-cha!

Fathers and Daughters

Delightful entertainment . . . exciting contests . . . festive atmosphere . . . Fathers and Daughters! . . . a long-remembered event on the Cub Calendar.

Okay Pop! Pick those feet up!

Mothers and Sons

Once-a-year experience . . . assembly . . . dancing . . . freshments . . . making new acquaintances . . . "never knew Mom was so great" . . . "my son's just like his Dad"

Mothers and Daughters

Mothers and Daughters tea . . . punch and cookies on a fine afternoon in May . . . enjoying the association with our Mothers . . . an event to be cherished by Southern gals.

I say . . . Where's the refreshments?

Class Parties

It's in the bag.

Fun — in a boisterous but well-organized manner . . . meeting with our classmates, a timely opportunity to meet more cubs . . . entertainment and laughter . . . talent . . . developing unity, the main ingredient of our Southern Spirit.

To knee or not to knee?

One for the money, two for the shoe.

Assemblies

Assemblies . . . lending variety and entertainment to school life . . . echoing cheers . . . snappy rhythms . . . uproarious satires on the faults and follies of our rivals . . . pep rallies, with school spirit, lifting higher and higher . . . Southerners, meeting together as one.

Rah, rah, reel!

Eek — a mouse!

I wanna be a teacher's pet!

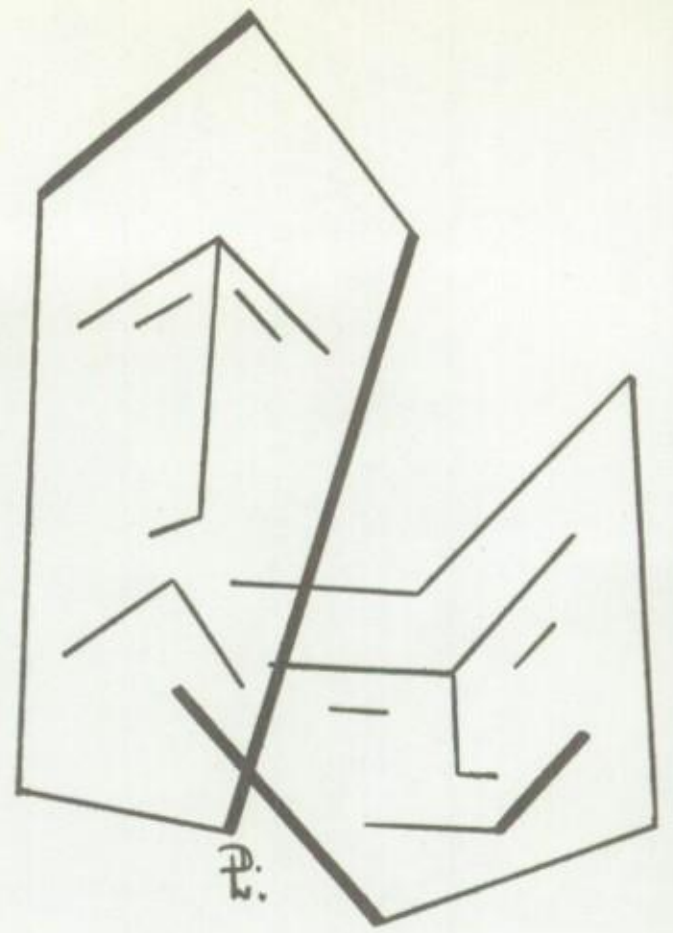

Song and dance . . . colorful extravaganzas . . . take-offs on contemporary people and things . . . parodies fitting the mood and season . . . the talents of Southerners evidenced in delightful entertainment.

Ah . . . ma leetle mummeel

Don't be so shy, Danny!

Broadening our world and our viewpoint . . . traveling assemblies . . . a glimpse of other lands . . . a hint of college humor . . . a lump in our throats as "No Man is an Island" swells forth.

"No man is an island, no man stands alone"

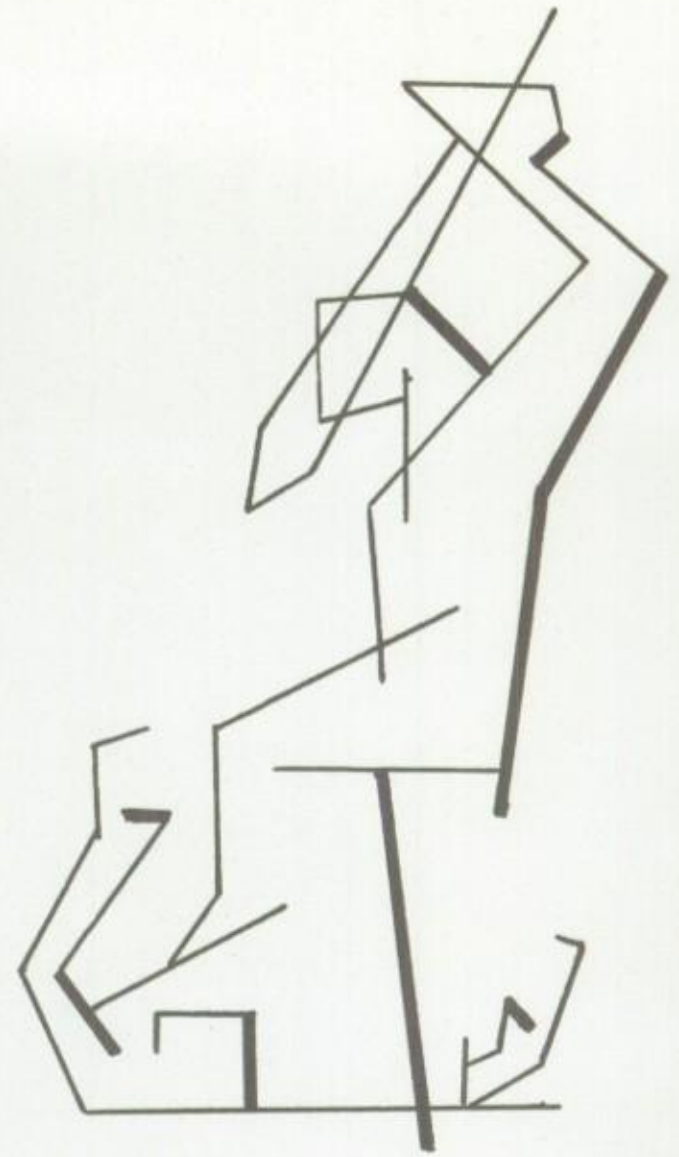

Thundering ovation . . . Dennis begins the assembly . . .
weekly renewal of our faith and enthusiasm . . . Southerners, standing united behind our president and our school.

Backstage scramble!

Southerners working together
 . . . class assemblies . . . the hustle and bustle of preparation
 . . . excitement . . . stage-fright
 . . . each assembly adds something to South High.

Oh, Baby!

I prefer corn muffins to pickles.

"Of Thee I Sing"

A rollicking campaign for President . . . John P. Wintergreen, carried to election on his slogan "Put Love In the White House" . . . a beauty contest to select the First Lady . . . a sexy Southern siren, jilted and furious . . . corn muffins and love . . . Mary saves the day with the unwitting co-operation of her husband . . . an appreciative audience . . . a "fabulous" high school presentation . . . the school play was one of the outstanding events of the year.

You all is a flower.

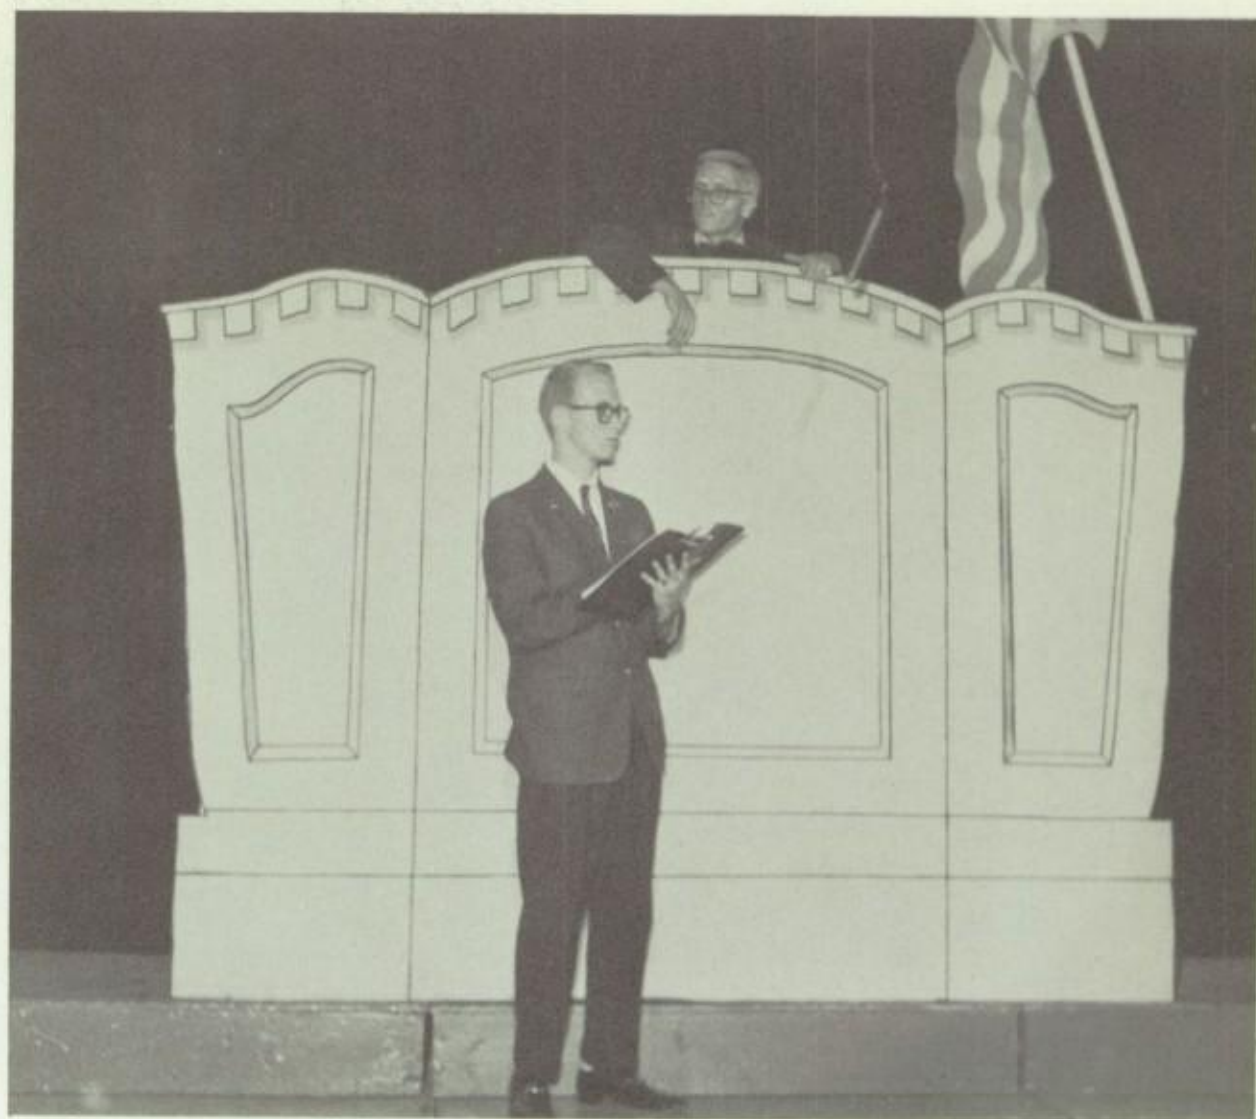

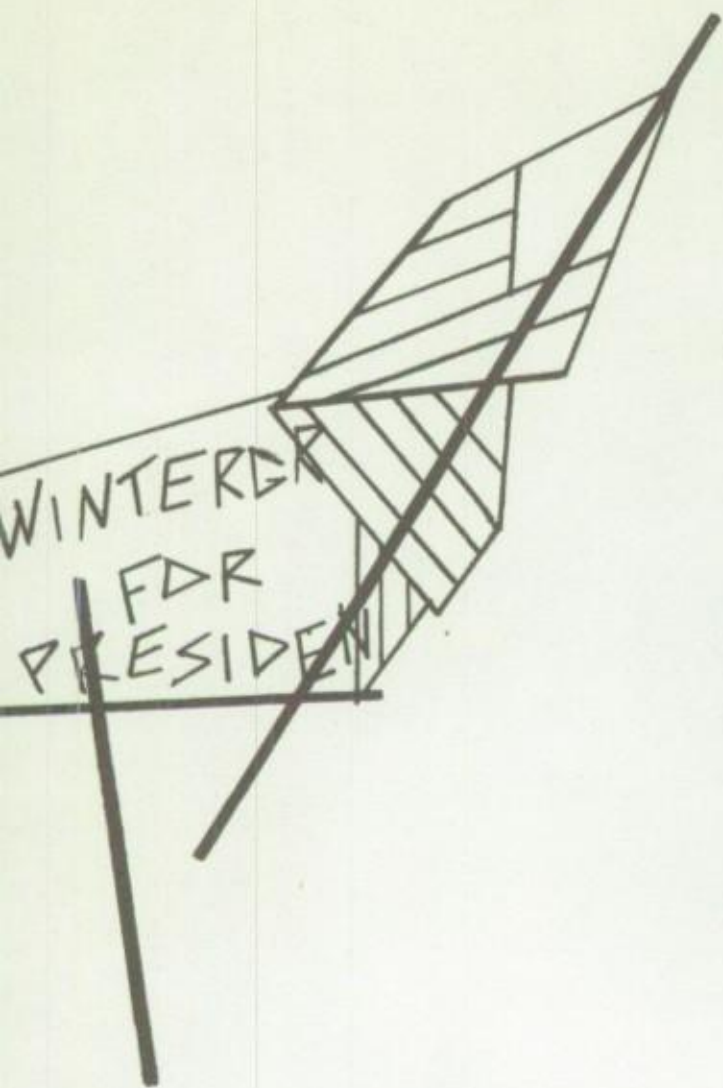

.. and they all lived happily ever after!

John evidently loves Mary!

Help! I'm falling!

Hoooot!

Plantation Ball

"Southern Twilight" . . . outstanding decorations . . . the bewitching glitter of a thousand stars . . . the romance of the Old South captured in river boat and moss tree . . . enchanting music from Tim Bates' Orchestra . . . well-executed under the imaginative direction of Kay Hellstrom and Diane Ellis . . . an event every Southern Belle and her beau will treasure.

Lovely evening.

Stars get in my eyes.

Bubble, bubble, toil and trouble.

"And once there was a fleeting wisp of glory . . . there's a perfect place . . . called 'Camelot'." . . . a red and gold decor of enchantment . . . turn-about affair . . . the beautiful results of Nancy Kelly's dynamic enthusiasm and Kathy Carling's artistic endeavors . . . the biggest dance of the year.

Girls' Dance

Notice who's always dancing in front of the mirrors!

Spring Formal

The double crosser! He said he wasn't coming!

"Illusion Isle" . . . spring reflected in a dreamy pink and violet horizon . . . soft lights, romantic music, formal attire . . . Richard Torgerson, chairman, and Carolyn Olson, decorations chairman: a job well done.

Do you like my new eye shadow?

Exotic seting . . . "Pagoda Gardens" . . . the artistic direction of Rickell James and Marian Alvey, chairmen . . . a highlight for senior girls and their guys.

Social Arts

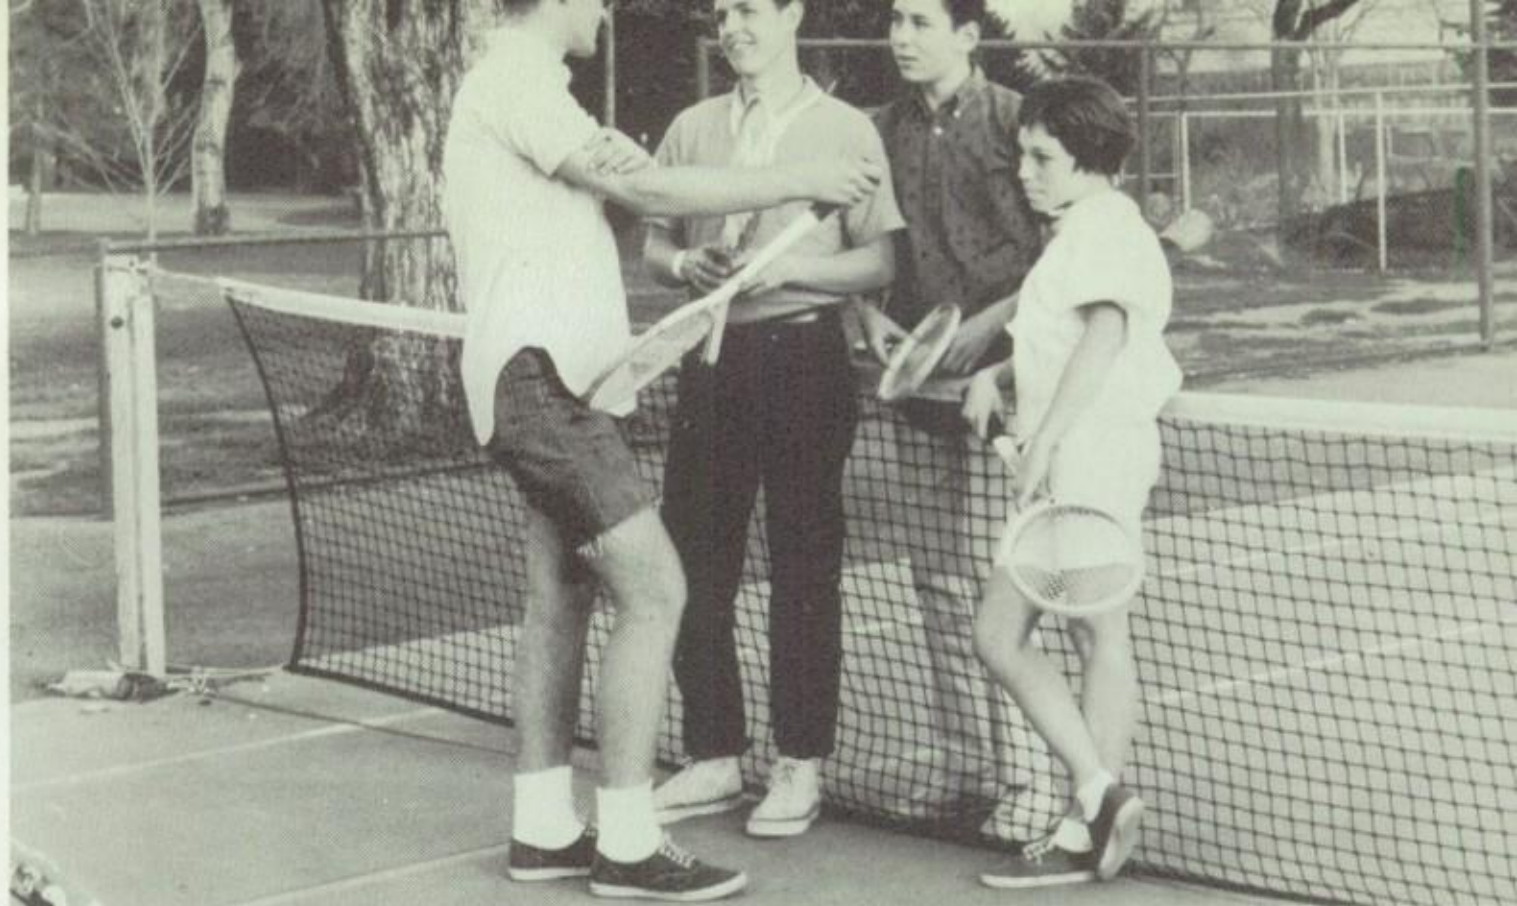

An important phase of school life . . . well attended . . . informal atmosphere putting everyone at his ease . . . celebrating victories . . . sports dances, the climax to exciting games.

Sports Dances

"Oh, look George! There's another dress just like mine."

Spring vacation . . . recreation and relaxation . . . off to the mountains . . . sunburns . . .
the end of skiing . . . the beginning of tennis, golf, and bicycling . . . a welcome rest.

"Now as I was saying, tennis is a wonderful muscle-builder."

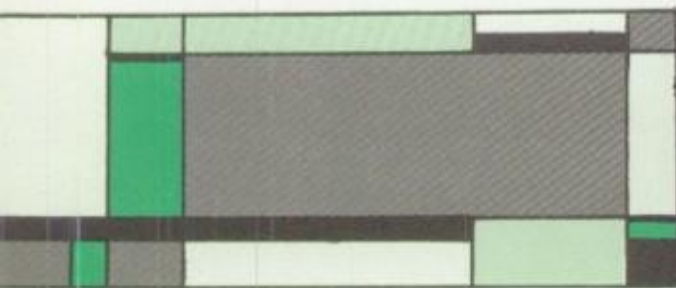

Spring Vacation

Once in a yearbook there has to be a picture out of focus.

Oh-mi-gosh! It's coming undone!

Spring Exhibit

Complete distortion!

Homemaking department . . . fashions, food, and place settings . . . art exhibits . . . displaying outstanding effort and ability . . . representation from the shops . . . exhibits of workmanship . . . blending voices and strains from the music department.

Pheasant under glass — no doubt!

Award Dinner-Dance

Honoring outstanding students . . . an excellent dinner highlighted by the presentation of awards . . . showing achievement in various fields . . . our leaders of tomorrow.

Just a lucky draw!

What's with the shirt?

Lagoon Day

A day of fun and frolic . . . swimming . . . thrills . . . lots of food . . . everybody out for a good time . . . new clothes . . . sunburns . . . Lagoon Day . . . an unforgettable Southern activity.

Three jolly coachmen.

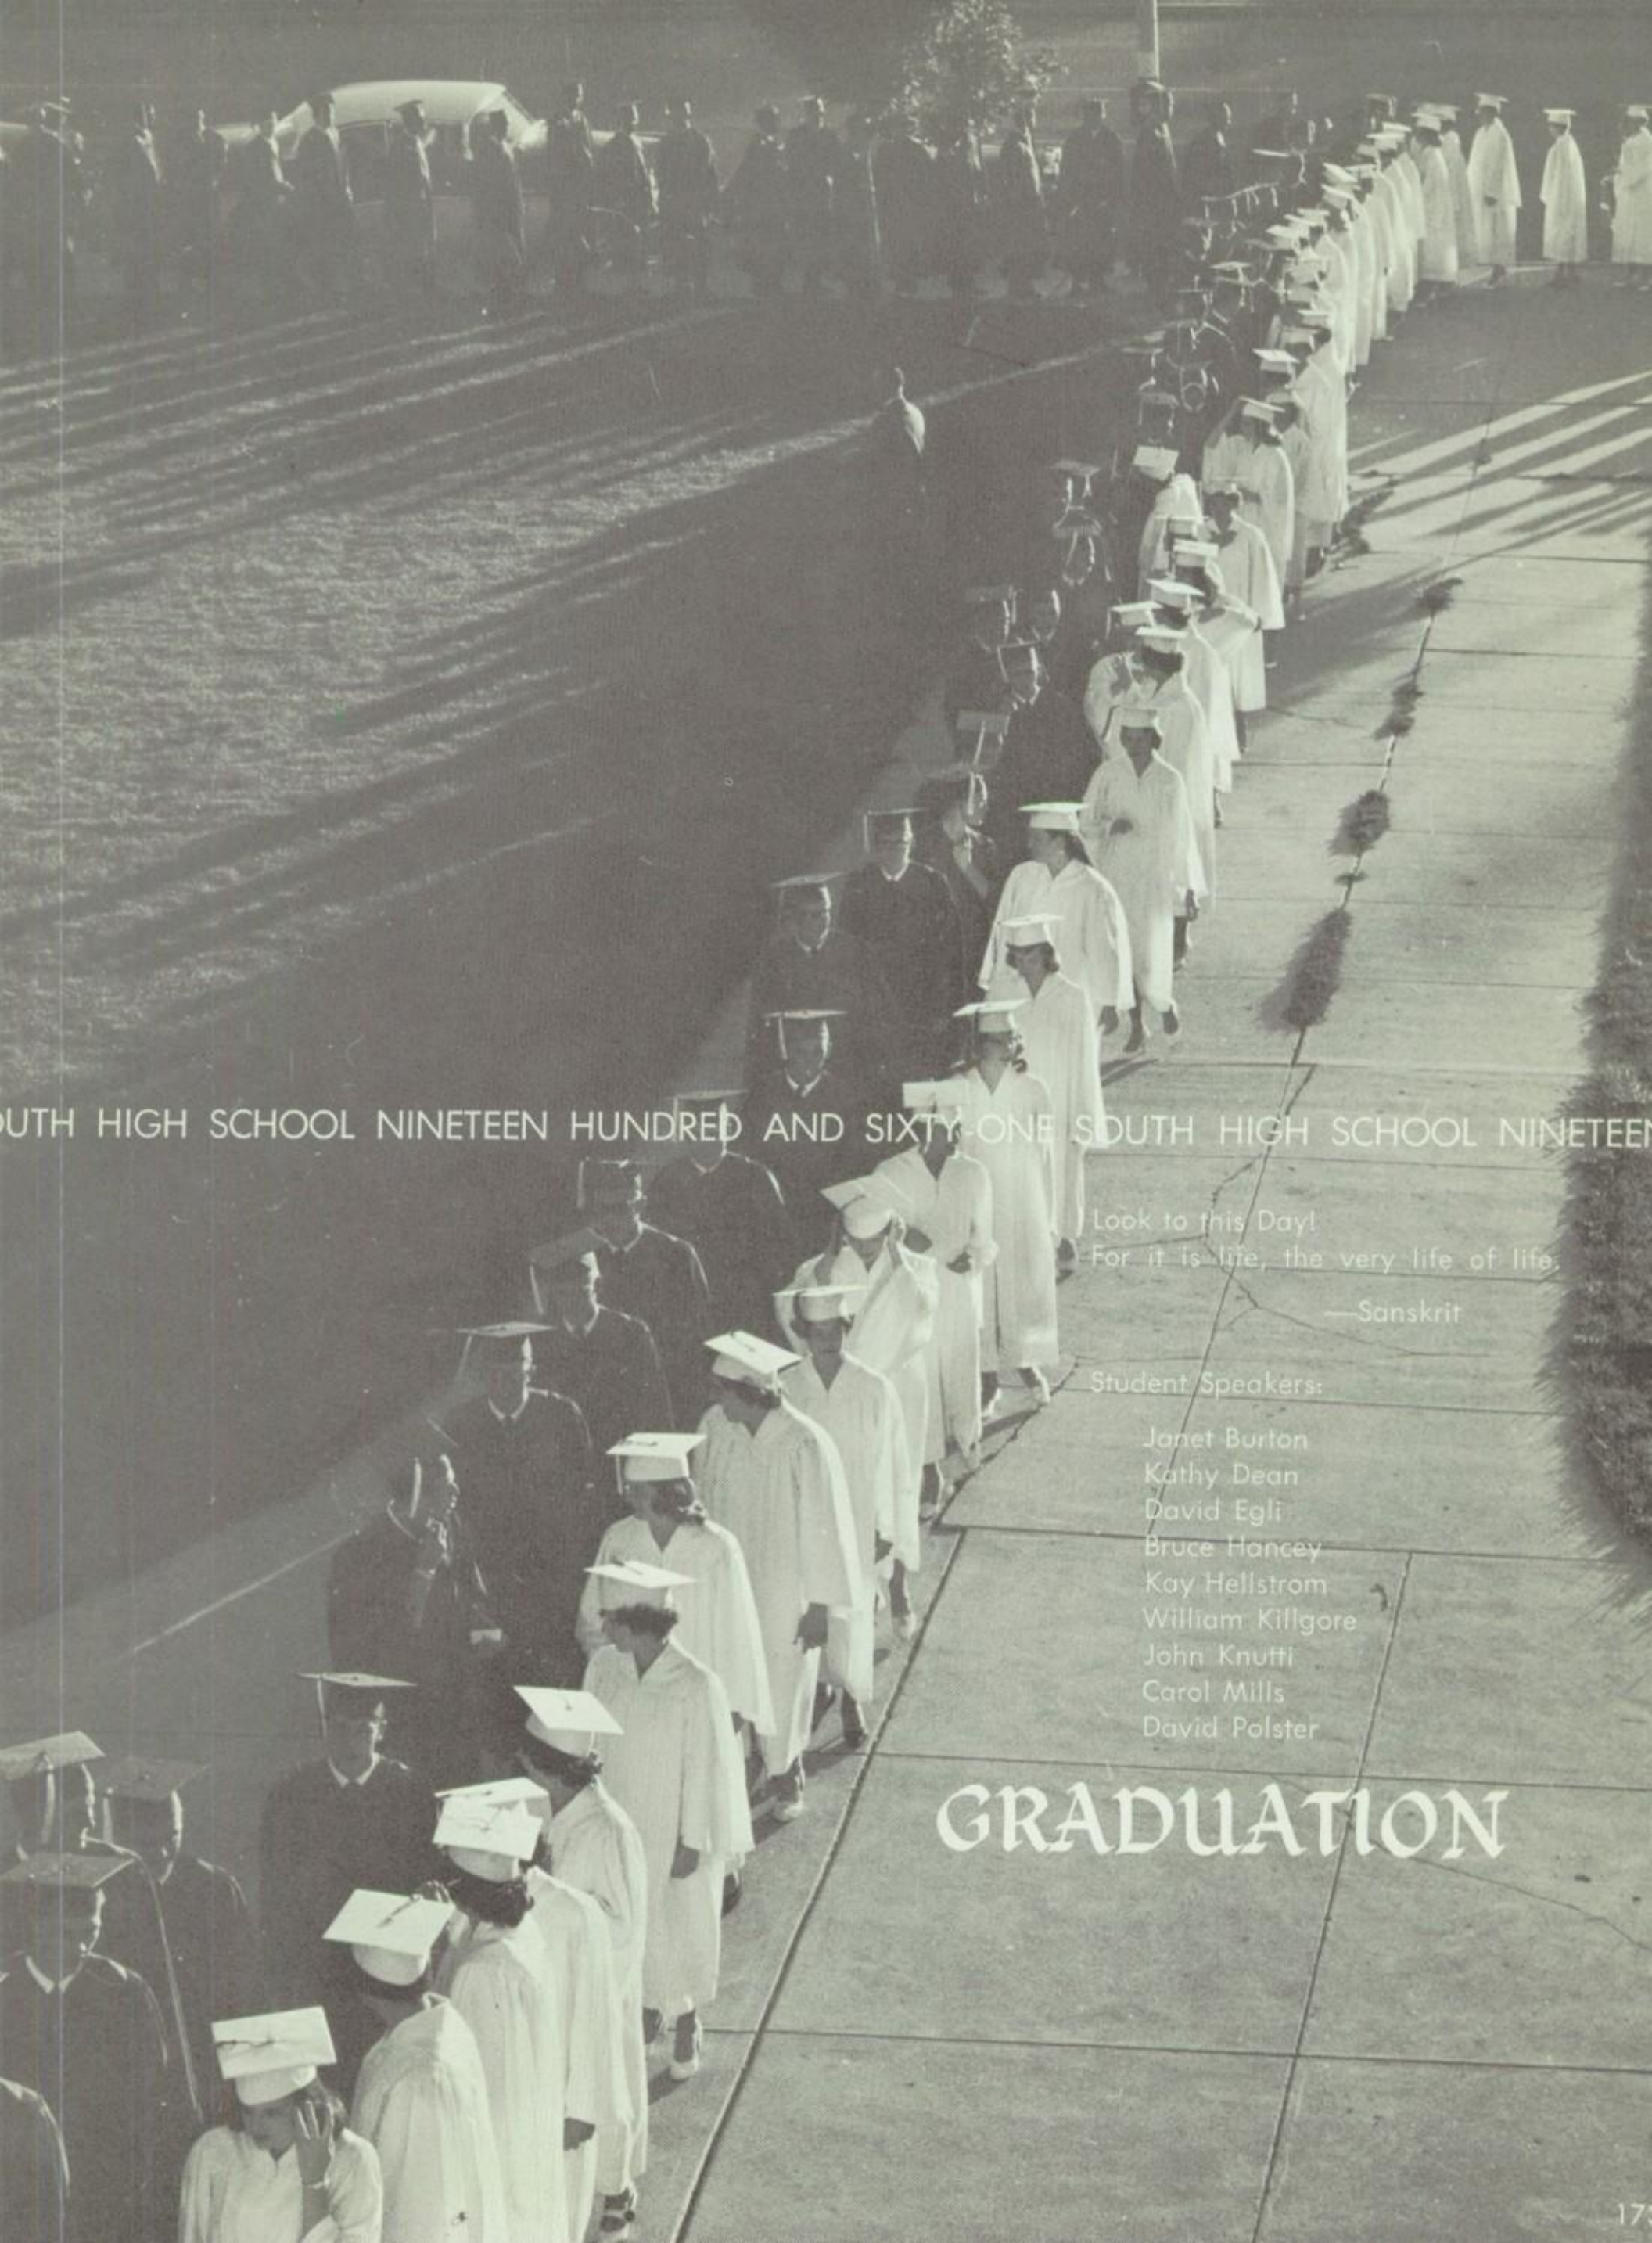

Yearbook Day . . . bringing back memories of the year . . . the climax of friendship, a chance to sincerely express appreciation and enjoyment . . . farewells, goodbys, and . . . "oh, were you in my English class?". . .

Side by side.

Yearbook Day

"Have fun this summer . . ."

OUTH HIGH SCHOOL NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SIXTY-ONE SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL NINETEEN

Look to this Day!
For it is life, the very life of life.

GRADUATION

IN APPRECIATION

It is the small things that you will remember of South High . . . the shiny waxed floors after vacation . . . the locker that always stuck . . . the aromas of appetizing food and choking chemicals mingling and penetrating the halls . . . the spirit of democracy . . . the fun of friendship . . . the pause between the school song and the thunderous cheer that follows. . . . And it is the small things that have made the production of this yearbook a memorable experience, the infinite small details that have given it meaning . . . deadlines . . . lost pictures and artwork . . . the desperate urgency of a posed picture . . . crazy captioners with their hilarious offerings (sometimes unprintable) . . . the excitement of the first returned proof . . . friendly debates and discussions, all with one goal in mind; a yearbook that truly is South High. Few people are responsible; many have contributed; all were necessary. The friendly co-operation and professional excellence of Ecker's and Wheelwrights' . . . the artistic and imaginative advice and help of our sponsor, Mr. LaLonde . . . most important, the late and long hours of a wonderful staff — willing workers all. Small jobs and large jobs, all of them well-done, all of them deserving thanks. This I do now, in sincere appreciation.

Kay Hellstrom, Editor

IN MEMORIAM

Thomas Burrows, Sophomore

Bessie Sanders, Junior

No man is an Iland, intire of its selfe;
every man is a peece of the Continent,
a part of the maine; if a Clod be washed away by the Sea, Europe is the lesse, as well as if a Promontorie were, as well as if a Mannor of thy friends or of thine owne were; any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in Mankinde.

— John Donne

It has really been a riot having you in algebra. Its too bad that we had to be so roudy and you had to move. I hope that you will come and see me this summer. Lots of luck to a real swell kid who is lots of fun. Don't forget to come and see me
